

Intensive Information, January 6 – 10, 2020

Courses being offered as Intensives during January 2019 are:

1. SCRP 502 Jesus & the Gospels (Pitre)
2. THEO 525 Challenge of Secularism (Blum) Note: This course may replace MA Theology core requirement HIST 502

Tuition:

Tuition is due on the first day of class. Intensive Scholarships are available and cover 30% of the tuition to help alleviate travel expenses. Applications are due by Dec. 14, and are found here:

<https://www.augustineinstitute.org/graduate-school/student-center/>

- The tuition is $1850 for each 3 credit-hour course.
- The Intensive week presents a semester's worth of lectures in one week. Assignments, papers and exams are due later in the term. Some reading may be assigned in advance. If that is the case, students will be notified.
- The 2020 January Intensives are primarily intended for our distance education students who make the journey to Denver in order to attend.
- Registration for the 2020 January Intensives opens November 15, 2019.

Travel information:

Regarding flights, common sense would say that it's best to come in on Sunday for the early Monday start. You'll be finished here by 12:30 on the Friday. The airport is about 30 minutes away. The earliest recommended flight home on the Friday would be 3 pm, but later is probably better. There is a shuttle service (SuperShuttle) to and from the airport you can arrange, depending on your flights: <https://www.supershuttle.com/locations/denverden/> Of course, if you want more flexibility, you can rent a car, but because of the hotel local shuttles, it is not absolutely necessary.

Accommodations:

We have a corporate rate with the local Wyndgate Hotel, ½ mile from the AI. Make your reservations by calling their front desk at (303) 221-0383 and identify your association with the Augustine Institute. They provide shuttle service to/from the Institute.

On occasion, friends of the Institute will offer housing for students if needed. Contact Barbara.
